Guided Tour of the online Introductory Wisdom School ecourse by Cynthia Bourgeault

Alan Krema will be your group guide for a 12 week sharing of the Introductory Wisdom School ecourse taught by Cynthia Bourgeault. This course is published by Wisdom Way of Knowing, Inc. and can be previewed and accessed on the website: <https://courses.wisdomwayofknowing.org/>

The group tour will include full access to the course online with additional enrollment as part of our group. This group will receive weekly email highlighting a particular portion of the ecourse with supplemental reflections, questions, and other complementary resources. The group will have its own discussion forum on the website for posting shared comments monitored and mentored by your guide.

The cost of this guided course is $170. In order to be eligible for this price, you have to register with the guide. You will then be fully enrolled and receive confirmation and course access from Wisdom Way of Knowing website. Your access will be identical to individual registration except you will have the additional enrollment in the group.

To enroll by mail, fill out the form below and send with payment.

To enroll online, email the information on the form to alkrema@gmail.com and you will receive a payment request via paypal.
